

Papercity

HOUSTON AUGUST 2011

STYLE | FASHION | SOCIAL

Sink or Swim,
EDITORS'
Picks
OUR FIRST
VERY PAPERCITY AWARDS

ALSO

DRIVING MR. BRINKLEY
WHEEL STYLE
ROAD TRIP: WIMBERLEY

PLUS

NEW SHOPS,
NEW SCOOP AND SUMMER SWIRLS

White, fitted, button-down number to wear with ball skirts or jeans. $110, at Indulge, Kuhl-Linscomb; claridgeandking.com.

Max Bill hand-winding watch by Junghans. $700, at Kuhl-Linscomb.

This whispery palette is perfect for displaying canvases and photography. Windham by Pratt & Lambert, $43 a gallon, at Buffalo Hardware.

Seth Vaughan

Editorial assistant, social scribe and dandy boy about town

Thursday-night strolling through the galleries of the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, for free.

What can I say? I'm attracted to screwy objects — and people. Verdura 18K yellow-gold Nut and Bolt cuff links $4,950, at Neiman Marcus.

This has been a favorite haunt since I was in short pants: Goode Company Bar-B-Q on Kirby.

Cocktail ensemble from the new BHLDN, the sister store of Anthropology. Ball skirt $800, bolero $400, corset $250, at BHLDN in Highland Village.

Ficus Lyrata, Fiddle-leaf fig is my hot new housemate. $200 for a 14-inch specimen, at Thompson & Hanson.

František Kupka's The Yellow Scale, circa 1907, at MFAH

We are Happy to Serve You cup $12, at Kuhl-Linscomb.

Faux-bamboo, gilded-metal French nesting tables, circa 1960, are the perfect perch for a gin and tonic. Set of three $1,628, at Carl Moore Antiques.

With inspiration like this on the walls, I'm ready to be fitted for a waistcoat. Framed vintage 1917 menswear print $265, at Brown.